KING ALFONSO AND LOUBET BARELY ESCAPE ASSASSIN; FIVE INJURED BY MISSILE

Bomb Throw at Royal Carriage Explodes Near Conveyance, Injuring Members of the Escort, but Monarch and President Escape Injury—Assault Made at Midnight, When Rulers Are Returning From Gala Performance at the Opera—Guilty Persons Thought to Be Among Those Arrested.

MINOR DEMONSTRATIONS ARE MADE AGAINST SOVEREIGN.

EMILE LOUBET,
President of France, who with King Alfonso of Spain, narrowly escaped death at the hands of an assassin last night in Paris.

Paris, June 1.—An attempt to assassinate King Alfonso was made at midnight.

At his Majesty drove with President Loubet from a gala performance at the Grand Opera house, a bomb was thrown by an anarchist and exploded with deadly effect near the royal carriage.

As if by a miracle, both the King and President escaped uninjured, but fragments of the missile seriously injured five persons, killed or maimed several cavalry horses forming the escort, and knocked out a child's eye. Intense excitement followed the incident.

The King and President retained their presence of mind, his Majesty sending back a member of his suite to make inquiries as to the condition of the wounded. The person who is believed to have thrown the bomb has been arrested, with two others, who are thought to have been implicated in the plot.

King Alfonso and President Loubet cheered along the entire route to the opera by enthusiastic crowds, the young monarch having completely gained the hearts of Parisians since his arrival here. The gala performance comprised "Samson and Delilah" and "Maloetka."
